IN THE SPOT LIGHT THERESA PIUS

You are never too old to learn something new! Theresa Pius always wanted to learn how to paint with watercolors and I was happy to give her a lesson. She was a natural. After an hour of instruction she was able to complete an Autumn themed painting of pumpkins and leaves. She has painted in oils and acrylic paints before but this was a new experience that she truly enjoyed.

To ensure the safety of the residents and staff during this pandemic, residents have been doing activities in their rooms. Lynese has been very creative and has kept the residents on the 2nd floor engaged and happy. Theresa expressed an interest in watercolors and kudos to Lynese for making it happen!
